FIB Olympic Task Force meeting

29 November 2023

Online

Attendance:

Stein Pedersen, Attila Adamfi, Tor Audun Sorensen, Knut Audun Sorensen, Hans Elis Johansson

SBF – SOK meeting:

- Gisela Stockhaus and Hans Elis met Hans von Uthmann and several mail correspondences have been made
- SOK was given instructions by IOC to focus on “ordinary program”, for this reason SOK does not address bandy for the programme, FIB shall coordinate with IOC

IOC – FIB meeting:

- IOC skipping the option of OPC recommended sport, pushed for ‘additional sport’ pathway, directed us to Stockholm
- IOC Sport Department has all information but will not push and recommend bandy for the programme

Conclusions:

- SOK will not propose bandy yet, referring to IOC
- IOC will not propose bandy, referring to SOK
- More focus to the political level, decision makers

Next steps:

- List of political decision makers and how to reach them directly – AA to make a list
- High level Summary Report (presentation) of the bandy case to present to the decision makers (also SOK, media, other stakeholders) – AA & all
- To consider strong ‘messages’, preparation of a potential law suit/litigation – KS
- FIB requesting a meeting with SOK based on IOC meeting and its recommendation – AA
- SBF application to SOK membership – HEJ (assisted by KS, AA)
- To comment ARISF Strategic Plan in relation to Olympic Programme pathway – AA & all
- Continue to actively cooperate with IOC Sports Dept. and push for answers – AA
- Request a FIB meeting with Thomas Bach – SP&AA
