1 ASSOCIATIONS STATUTES

Each Member Association shall include in its statutes a stipulation whereby it, its clubs, players and other Officials agree to be bound by and observe the FIB Statutes. Particular reference shall be made to Art. 46-50 of the FIB Statutes, which state as follows:

- the Executive Committee and the other Committees elected by the Congress shall have exclusive jurisdiction to deal with all disputes of a sporting nature relating to FIB matters which arise between FIB and Member Associations, their clubs, players and other Officials.
- the FIB Board of Arbitration shall have exclusive jurisdiction to deal with all civil law disputes (of a pecuniary nature) relating to FIB matters which arise between Member Associations, clubs, players and officials, and between themselves, in its capacity as an ordinary court of arbitration. The Executive Committee shall have the power to issue regulations setting out the procedures for the administration of arbitration cases ("Arbitration Regulations").
- the Court of Arbitration in Lausanne, Switzerland (CAS) shall have exclusive jurisdiction to deal with all disputes relating to FIB matters which arise between FIB and Member Associations, clubs, players and officials, and between themselves, either in its capacity as an ordinary court of arbitration or as an appeals body.

2 WRITTEN DECLARATION

Each Member Association shall give express confirmation to FIB in a written declaration that it has taken note of the provisions of Art. 46, para. 1 of the FIB Statutes. Each club, player and official taking part in FIB competitions shall also give express confirmation to FIB in a written declaration that each has taken note of Art. 46, para. 1.

2. Executive Committee and other Committees

Article 47

1 JURISDICTION IN DISPUTES OF A SPORTING NATURE

The Executive Committee and the other Committees elected by the Congress shall have exclusive jurisdiction to deal with all disputes of a sporting nature relating to FIB matters which arise between FIB and Member Associations, clubs, players or other Officials.

2 FINALITY

The decisions of the Executive Committee shall be final and binding. There shall be no recourse to legal action in the ordinary courts of law in relation to such matters.

3. Board of Arbitration

Article 48

1 JURISDICTION IN CIVIL LAW DISPUTES

The Board of Arbitration shall have exclusive jurisdiction to deal with all civil law disputes (of a pecuniary nature) relating to FIB matters which arise between Member Associations, clubs, players or other Officials.

2 ORDINARY COURTS OF LAW

The decisions of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding. There shall be no recourse to legal action in the ordinary courts of law in relation to such matters.

3 PROCEEDINGS

The Proceedings before the Board of Arbitration shall take place in accordance with the Arbitration Regulations.

4. Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS)

Article 49

2 ORDINARY COURTS OF LAW

There shall be no recourse to legal action in the ordinary courts of law in relation to such disputes.

3 PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings before CAS shall take place in accordance with the Code of Sports-related Arbitration of CAS.

XII. CONCLUDING PROVISIONS

Governing Law and Legal Forum

Article 50

1 SWEDISH LAW

These Statutes and all FIB Regulations shall be governed in all respects by Swedish law.

2 LEGAL FORUM

The legal forum shall be the headquarters of FIB. Stockholm (Sweden) shall be the legal forum for the Board of Arbitration unless the chairman decides otherwise on a case by case basis. Lausanne (Switzerland) shall be the legal forum for all cases which, in accordance with these Statutes, come under the jurisdiction of CAS.

Matters not Covered in the Statutes

Article 51

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee shall have the power to decide on all matters not covered in these Statutes or FIB regulations. The Executive Committee shall decide according to right and justice.

Dissolution of FIB

Article 52

1 4/5 MAJORITY

A four-fifths majority of all Member Associations shall be required to dissolve FIB.

2 ASSETS

A four-fifths majority of all Member Associations shall be required for any decision as to the distribution of the assets of FIB on dissolution. Without a decision as to such distribution, any resolution to dissolve FIB shall have no effect.

3 DIVISION OF ASSETS

The assets of FIB shall not under any circumstances be divided among the members and any resolution to this effect shall have no effect.
